Shortly after the Infirmary which took place in Dublin, 2nd July 1805, the Member of Prisoners committed to my Custody became so great, the Provost was found not sufficient for their Accommodation; a Vessel was therefore hired on the 10th Day of August 1805, to remain in the Harbour of Dublin under my Order as a Prison Ship, in Aid of the Provost, which Vessel assigned to my custody with the 20th Day of October 1805, when having no longer necessity for the vessel.

During that period many of the Prisoners were from time to time transferred from the Provost to the Ship, and the contrary, as circumstances might require or advisable to do, but they were all still in my Custody, I therefore exclude them all in the same Return.

Wm Sandy,
Major of Regt.
